LIST OF West Indies RESOURCES

This report lists all the books, CDs, fiche and microfilms in the Toronto Family History Centre (FHC) at Don Mills and Eglinton for researchers interested in researching the West Indies.

The LDS Church has collected a lot of genealogical information worldwide over the years. This information is available, partly online at www.familysearch.org, partly through family history centers, and finally at the Family History Library, located in Salt Lake City. Family history centers (more than 3,500 around the world) are branches of the Family History Library. Through the Family History Centers (FHC), a patron can order film or fiche at nominal charges for viewing at the FHCs. These films or fiches contain a vast amount of genealogical and historical information. The online FHL catalog is available at http://www.familysearch.org/Eng/Library/FHLC/frameset_fhlc.asp . The www.familysearch.org website also has the online record search and a great deal of genealogical research guidance.

The Toronto Family History Centre at 24 Ferrand Drive (Don Mills & Eglinton) is one of several Toronto area centres. Volunteers are on hand to lend assistance at each centre.
The Toronto FHC has many films which are available at no charge to patrons, including more than 200 films of records from the former British West Indies. The films available at the Toronto FHC are described in very basic terms in the table below. For more detailed and accurate information on these films, please see: www.familysearch.org/Eng/Library/FHLC/frameset_fhlc.asp . For example, the first Barbados film, 1666999, contains an index to the registers of baptisms from 1901 to 1904. This collection contains civil registration indexes, land records, and church records.
